Since 1846

The heaven and the earth were finished, and all their array. On the seventh day God finished the work and ceased on the seventh day from all the work which God had done. And God blessed the seventh day and declared it holy, because on it God ceased from all the work of creation which God had done. Such is the story of heaven and earth when they were created.

A MONTH OF BEGINNINGS

The expression, “shanah tovah,” “a good new year,” so ubiquitous at this season, flowed freely on a recent Columbus Jewish Federation/Board of Rabbis mission to Israel. The trip coincided with the beginning of Elul, the month preceding Rosh Hashanah, and these were the parting words of blessing from every encounter with fascinating and thoughtful Israelis. Our president Brian Tuckerman and I, six Columbus rabbinic colleagues and their synagogue representatives, and community leadership that included Temple Israel members Artie Isaac, Michael Weiss, Aaron Shocket and Audrey Tuckerman, spent 2 ½ days learning about Israel’s newest immigrant community of Ethiopian Jews. Israel has embarked on a courageous mission to save and resettle 20,000 new olim (immigrants) from Ethiopia in the next two years, to complete the Ethiopian aliyah that began in the 1990s. Operation Promise will facilitate the journey “home,” provide Hebrew and Jewish education, and help integrate an ancient community into a modern society. To say that the stories we heard from immigrants, immigration professionals and consultants were moving and inspiring does them little justice. I am excited to share this adventure with you; we will begin our own share of Operation Promise during this month of October.

October begins and ends with beginnings. On the evening of October 3, we shall gather as one large family to welcome the Jewish year 5766. I approach the new year with a deep sense of humility, anxiety and awe because at this season, more than any other time during the year, our liturgy depicts God as Ruler, Sovereign, Arbiter and Judge. With these images in my consciousness, I am reminded of the vastness of the Holy One’s universe and the smallness of my little corner of this creation. At the same time, the moving prayers of the Days of Awe convey a message that my actions in the world can and do have cosmic implications. No matter one’s personal theology, the High Holy Days compel us to set aside time to reflect on the condition of our lives, and to turn and look at ourselves with a critical eye. Where am I? What am I doing? What needs work? I trust you will begin October with your congregation and allow yourself to be stirred by the warmth of community, the majestic melodies of High Holy Day worship and the words “shanah tovah” all around you. I invite you to extend the beginning with Rabbis Brickner, Abrahamson and me by enjoying yourself at our annual Rosh Hashanah Open House on the afternoon of October 4, immediately following the Alum Creek Tashlich ceremony (see p. 6 for details about Tashich and Open House).

October concludes with a beginning as well. The final Shabbat of the month is Par’shat Breisheet, the first Torah portion of the new year. Par’shat Breisheet marks the opening of the cycle of the reading of the Torah. This year, Shabbat B’reisheet is also the beginning of Elka and my youngest child’s journey into Jewish adulthood. We would be honored to have you seated in the congregation when we call Maya Eden to the Torah on October 29. The Temple Sisterhood is preparing a festive Kiddush luncheon and we hope you will join us to worship and celebrate.

ABOUT THE COVER: Commissioned for the Bat Mitzvah of Maya Eden Zinkow, this original tapestry, “Creation,” illustrates the Biblical creation narrative, from chaos into order. The mystical “shattered vessels” fall like autumn leaves into an organized pattern depicting the six days of God’s work. The Sabbath is the culminating peak, represented by the rows of seven squares. The text comes from the Book of Genesis, “and God rested on the seventh day from all the work that God had done.”

ABOUT THE ARTIST: A passion for color, joy, love of beauty and a desire to unite beauty with ritual art were the driving forces behind the creation of Adina Gatt’s studio in Nahariya, Israel, called Efod Art Embroidery. Gatt works in a variety of fabrics to create chuppot, tallitot and tallis bags, challah covers, wall hangings, holy ark curtains, and Torah covers. Ms. Gatt will participate in Temple Israel’s Jewish Arts Fair on November 12 and 13.

BABYSITTING & THE HIGH HOLY DAYS

As the High Holy Days approach, the Temple Israel Babysitting Committee has been busy making plans for Temple Israel again to offer babysitting through a babysitting service. We found that the quality and reliability of the sitters to be excellent; their attention to children's needs to be exceptional; and we look forward to again having them in Temple Israel's employ.

As you may have noted in the High Holy Day newsletter sent to you several weeks ago, there will continue to be a charge of $5/child per service for babysitting. This not only helps defray the cost of the many babysitters needed to accommodate the children on the High Holy Days but also allows Temple to better estimate the number of sitters to hire (based on the number of children and their ages).

If you have not made arrangements for babysitting, please send your reservation check along with the child's name and age, your name and daytime phone number to Jennifer Jordan at the Temple.

Babysitting option times for Rosh Hashanah are:

8:15-10:30 am; 11:15 - 1:30 pm.

Babysitting option times for Yom Kippur are:

8:15 -10:30 am; 11:15 - 1:30 pm; 3 - 7 pm

For children attending the 11:15 am babysitting session, lunch is not provided. Apple juice and Graham crackers will be provided. Parents MAY WISH to pack a lunch for their child.

This year, for the first time, Temple will also provide a “Crying Room” for parents who wish to remove their children from services for a time-out period but who wish to enjoy the service. There will be an audio feed into Room 100, the classroom designated as the Crying Room, to which parents may enter and exit freely with their children. There will be no babysitter in this room.

Lastly, the Babysitting Committee wishes to see Temple continue to provide babysitting service one Friday each month, the first Friday. This announcement will appear in the monthly Tikun. There is no charge for this service and no reservations are required.

We have been most happy to work on issues related to our children and their health and safety at Temple Israel.

ROSH HASHANAH HOME PRAYERS

Before the candles are lit:

“With the setting of this evening’s sun, united with Jews in every place and every time, may we proclaim a new year of hope. May the light of God show us the paths we can follow to do good and create a world of peace. Let the fire we kindle be a warming flame that brings us closer to one another and leads us into a year of health and wholeness.”

Light Candles then say:

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מְלֶכֶּךְ

הָעוֹלָם. אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו. וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק נֵיר שֶׁל יוֹם טוֹב.

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-heinu me-lech ha-olam asher ki-de-sha-nu be-mits vo-tav le had-lik-neir shel Yom Tov.

Blessed are You, Holy God, Ruler of the Universe, who has made us holy with commandments and commanded us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) this festival.

Over wine or grape juice:

(this is an abbreviated form of the Kiddush, wine blessing)

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מְלֶכֶּךְ הָעוֹלָם. בּוֹרֵא פְּרֵי הַגֶּפֶן.

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-heinu me-lech ha-olam, bo-reh pri ha-ga-fen

Blessed are you, Holy God, Ruler of the Universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.

Shehecheyanu:

בְּרוּךְ

אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מְלֶכֶּךְ הָעוֹלָם. שְׁהַחַיְנוּ וְקִיַּמְנוּ וְהַגִּיעֵנוּ לְזֶמַן הַזֶּה.

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-heinu me-lech ha-olam, sheh-he-cheh-yah-nu, ve-ki-yeh-mah-nu, ve-hi-gi-yah-nu lah-z'man ha-zeh.

Blessed are you, Holy God, Ruler of the Universe, who has kept us alive, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this moment.

Over the Challah:

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מְלֶכֶּךְ הָעוֹלָם. הַמוֹצִיא שֶׁחֵם מִן הָאָרֶץ.

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-heinu me-lech ha-olam, ha-motzi lechem min ha-aretz.

Blessed are you, Holy God, Ruler of the Universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

Dip apples in honey and say:

יְהִי רָצוֹן מִלְּפָנֶיךָ יי

אֱלֹהֵינוּ וְיֵאָבֵד שְׁתַּחֲדֵשׁ עָלֵינוּ שָׁנָה טוֹבָה וּמְתוֹקָה.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מְלֶכֶּךְ הָעוֹלָם. בּוֹרֵא פְּרֵי הָעֵץ.

Y'hi ratzon mil-fanecha Ado-nai Elo-heinu vei-lohei avoteinu shet-cha-deish aleinu shanah tovah um-tukah. Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-heinu me-lech ha-olam, bo-reh pri ha-etz

May it be Your will, Holy God, our God and God of our ancestors, to renew us with a good and sweet year. Blessed are you, Holy God, Ruler of the Universe, Creator of the fruit of the tree.

YES FUND CONTINUED

In the September issue of Tikun, the purpose of the YES Fund was described. As members of Temple Israel, you can support the YES Fund in several ways. One way is by purchasing Uniongrams. Three times each year, our Sisterhood women mail out lists containing the names of Sisterhood members who are celebrating special birthdays and anniversaries. In addition, Temple members are recognized for special events in their lives including honors received, our youth becoming bar or bat mitzvot, marriages of family members or the birth of a child or grandchild. For a mere $1.50 per name, you are able to have Sisterhood women send a Uniongram of congratulations. Not only is this a great deal, considering the cost of sending a card but it also supports a worthwhile project. What an easy way to support our youth, rabbinic students and special WRJ projects that will ensure the future of Reform Judaism! Look for the next set of lists to appear in your mailbox in December.

Uniongrams are also available for purchase in the Temple Israel Judaica Shop along with an assortment of thank you notes, greeting cards and post-it notes. Money from the sale of the items goes to support the YES fund. Other types of YES fund cards are also available by special order. They can be viewed on a poster board in the shop.

In November, you will learn about a way to individually support the WRJ YES fund. For questions concerning YES fund contributions, please contact Sisterhood co-presidents, Liz Plotnick-Snay or Eva Simons, or WRJ board member Bette Jo Stempel.

MEET THE CANDIDATES FORUM

Temple Israel will once again host a Meet the Candidates Forum Tuesday, November 1. This is a great way to learn more about the candidates and issues that will appear on the ballot on Election Day, November 8. The program begins with an informal Meet & Greet at 6:30 pm followed by the Q&A at 7:00 pm. A moderator from one of our local TV stations will ask the candidates your written questions. Don't depend on paid ads. Ask the candidates yourself.

If you are interested in being a volunteer for this event, please contact Barbi Crabill (bgc2250@aol.com) or call the Temple Office.

Every time you refill your Kroger card Temple Israel Sisterhood gets 5% and our fund-raising efforts benefit Temple Israel...we committed $18,550 to the Temple for 2005-2006 year.

Each time you have your Meijer card swiped before your purchases we get 1%-4%. Giant Eagle gift certificates & Kroger cards are still available to purchase Sunday mornings or contact Ellen Half at 231-4253 or halfems@yahoo.com.

TZEDAKAH OF THE MONTH

HURRICANE KATRINA ~ ADOPT A HOME

Through FirstLink of Columbus, Temple Israel has adopted a home to furnish for a family that has relocated to Columbus having been displaced by Hurricane Katrina. The Temple has accepted the responsibility of furnishing a home for a family of four.

Time is of the essence! An immediate response is necessary! Families are already here and are in the process of obtaining housing. We expect to have them in their furnished home within the next two weeks.

The responsibilities of adopting a home include collecting all furniture, household supplies, toiletries, and food. The Religious School has accepted the responsibility of collecting small appliances, household supplies, toiletries and food. The congregation is responsible for furnishing the rest.

There will be a storage container located in the temple's parking lot to collect the items to be ready for delivery.

Cash donations are also needed to purchase items not donated. Please call Bev Darwin ASAP at 253-8368 or email her at robobevan@columbus.rr.com to coordinate your donation. For more information visit the Temple Israel website, www.templeisrael.org.
